

16TH EURO-ASIA INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH SEMINAR

- CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: EUROPEAN AND ASIAN PERSPECTIVES -

HIROSHIMA SHUDO UNIVERSITY & MIYAJIMA CORAL HOTEL, HIROSHIMA, JAPAN

Seminar Venue

HIROSHIMA SHUDO UNIVERSITY

Hiroshima Shudo University (HSU) was originally founded in 1952 as night time two-year University at the beginning, then reestablished as the comprehensive four-year university in 1960. In 1974, the campus of HSU moved to the current location, which is sited at 13km northwest from Hiroshima city downtown. Around 6,000 students are currently studying at the five undergraduate schools and five postgraduate schools (Website: <http://www.shudo-u.ac.jp/english/index.html>) At the 2nd day of the annual meeting, International Business Symposium and the Gala dinner will be held at the HSU campus.

MIYAJIMA CORAL HOTEL

Miyajima Coral Hotel (<http://www.coral-hotel.co.jp/>) is the venue for Early Bird Reception, Concurrent Sessions and Welcome Dinner. This Hotel is located just beside the jetty for the ferry to approach to Miyajima Island. Miyajima Island is quite famous for the historic site of Itsukushima Shrine (<http://www.miyajima.or.jp/english/index.html>).

Dear Colleagues

It is great pleasure that the committee of Euro-Asia International Research Seminar formally invites you to attend the 2010 Annual Meeting at Hiroshima Shudo University, 2nd -3rd, September, 2010. For the conference, the committee decided to have the annual meeting at Miyajima, where there is the Magnificent World Heritage Site "Itsukushima Shrine (See a photo above)".

The committee dedicates to a quality program, a productive symposium and enjoyable social functions. We are looking forward to welcoming you to the 2010 Euro-Asia International Research Seminar Annual Meeting in Hiroshima.
